English 521

Activity: Travelogue
Type: Standard
Due: Thursday, April 2

Task:

After reading through Bill Bryon's A Walk in the Woods on page 412 of Echoes 11, students are to do the following:

- Make note of TEN terms whose definition you do not know. Copy these terms into your notebook.
- Find out the definition of these terms.
- Create a fictional travelogue (in the same tone as Mr Bryon's) which uses these TEN terms.
- Submissions MUST be between 250 and 300 words.
- The terms must be underlined in the passage.
- Submissions MUST also fit on one page.
- Submissions MUST have an informal cover page.
- All proper rules of grammar and mechanics apply.

All Submissions Shall Be Assessed Using a Four Point Scale:

4 - Outstanding writing, solid flow of ideas, no distinguishable errors in spelling and grammar.
3 - Strong writing, solid flow of ideas, some errors in spelling and grammar (not affecting readability).
2 - Adequate writing, somewhat stunted flow of ideas, several mechanical errors which affect readability.
1 - Weak writing, ideas do not flow well, too many mechanical errors which confuse the piece entirely.
